Syllabus: GMS7794
Term: Fall, 2018
Course Directors: Jeremy McIntyre, PhD. jmcin@ufl.edu, L1-100c
Eduardo Candelario-Jalil, PhD. ecandelario@ufl.edu

Program Assistant: Elizabeth Fisher, elizabethcfisher@ufl.edu
Class Dates: Thursdays, 9-10am. DeWeese Auditorium
Please see the Attached Scheduled for speakers.

Requirements to receive an “S”
• Attend all Seminars
  • Must Sign-in by 10min after start of seminar
  • After this point, the sign-in sheet will be removed and you will be considered absent for the class.
  • You are expected to stay for the entire class, thru the question and answer session. Students that leave early will be counted as absent.
  • There will be 14 seminars this semester. All students (local and Whitney) are required to submit 2, 1-page summaries of any seminars of their choice.
  • Summaries must be turned in before the next seminar (1 week Deadline). We will not accept summaries turned in later than a week following the date the seminar was given.
  • Summaries: ¾-1page, single spaced, in paragraph format highlighting key questions, hypothesis, data and conclusions.
• If a seminar is missed:
  • 1 seminar will be fully excused for Conference attendance: Please inform Course directors and Ms. Fisher, provide conference name and dates
  • 1st absence: attend a speaker lunch. Send email to course directors and
    Ms. Fisher so we know.
  • 2nd Absence: Attend another neuroscience related seminar. Inform Course directors/Ms. Fisher of Seminar
  • subsequent absences. Must Attend another seminar and submit a written Summary.

*SCHEDULE ADJUSTMENT:
April 11th seminar is at 11:00am
Luttge Lecture during Brain Awareness week: Monday March 11th, 12:00pm

Alternative seminar series that are neuro-related:
Dept. of Pharmacology and Therapeutics, Dept. of Physiology, http://cst.ufl.edu/seminars.html
https://addictionresearch.health.ufl.edu/care-seminars/

Additional Expectations
• Evaluate all UF presenters-Only when they present and you attend. Do not submit evaluations for seminars that are canceled.
• Evaluate both Course Directors at end of term
• Please keep suggesting speakers. We have been able to invite some of those nominated, and are working on others for future semester