

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA
COLLEGE OF MEDICINE SYLLABUS
NEUROSCIENCE
GMS 6XXX Neuropathology (1 credit)
Delivery Format: On-Campus

Instructor Name: Wolfgang J. Streit
Phone Number: 352-273-5096
Email Address: pschorr@ufl.edu
Office Hours: by student request
Prerequisites: GMS 6705 Functional Human Neuroanatomy

Course Overview:

This course will focus on the histopathological evaluation of tissues using light microscopy primarily. The course will discuss neuropathological lesions in rodent models (experimental), as well as in human post-mortem tissues. Topics to be covered will vary with students' needs and interests: they may include the aging brain and neurodegenerative diseases, brain tumors, and experimental models of peripheral nerve injury, stroke, and trauma.

Course Objectives and/or Goals:

- Be able to appreciate the cellular diversity of the central nervous system in terms of cell types and cell-cell interactions.
- Understand how cell-cell interactions may change from normal circumstances to pathological ones.
- Gain an appreciation of the functional importance of glial cells in the maintenance of neuronal health (glial-neuronal interactions),
- Be able to explain glial reactivity in neurological diseases.
- Understand how glial reactivity may change with aging and disease.
- Understand the pathogenic mechanisms of Alzheimer's disease.

Course Schedule:

Week	Topic(s)
1	Glial-neuronal interactions in experimental neuropathology
2	Glial-neuronal interactions in human neurodegenerative disease
3	Pathological lesion development in human neurodegenerative disease.
4	The aging brain and forms of cell death
5	Brain tumors
6	Group discussion

Course Materials:

Original research articles may be assigned as reading in preparation for some lectures.
No textbook is required

Grading:

This is an S/U graded course. The grade will be based on in-class participation and contributions by students, e.g. questions/answers/discussions. There will be no formal exam.

More information on UF grading policy may be found at:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/graduate/regulations/#text>

Policy Related to Required Class Attendance:

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.asp>

Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog

Academic Integrity:

Students are expected to act in accordance with the University of Florida policy on academic integrity. As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge:

“We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.”

You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied:

“On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.”

It is your individual responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code at the University of Florida will not be tolerated. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. For additional information regarding Academic Integrity, please see Student Conduct and Honor Code or the Graduate Student Website for additional details:

Please remember cheating, lying, misrepresentation, or plagiarism in any form is unacceptable and inexcusable behavior.

Online Faculty Course Evaluation Process:

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

Policy Related to Guests Attending Class:

Only registered students are permitted to attend class. However, we recognize that students who are caretakers may face occasional unexpected challenges creating attendance barriers. Therefore, by exception, a department chair or his or her designee (e.g., instructors) may grant a student permission to bring a guest(s) for a total of two class sessions per semester. This is two sessions total across all courses. No further extensions will be granted. Please note that guests are not permitted to attend either cadaver or wet labs. Students are responsible for course material regardless of attendance. For additional information, please review the Classroom Guests of Students policy in its entirety.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities:

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the Disability Resource Center by visiting <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester. The College is committed to providing reasonable accommodations to assist students in their coursework.

Counseling and Student Health:

Students sometimes experience stress from academic expectations and/or personal and interpersonal issues that may interfere with their academic performance. If you find yourself facing issues that have the potential to or are already negatively affecting your coursework, you are encouraged to talk with an instructor and/or seek help through University resources available to you.
